- 6. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.—
- (1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be comprised of eight hours of work.
- (2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than twelve hours on any day.
- (3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the Chandigarh Administration.
- (4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of1948).
- 7. Weekly day of rest.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as "the rest day") which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than six days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first provison to this sub-rule, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act No. 14 of 1947), and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be the days on which the employee has worked.

(2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

- (3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.
- (2) An employee shall be granted-
- (a) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and
- (b) where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where-

- (i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty-six; or
- (ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages ofthe employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and
- (iii) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the officer appointed through notification by Chandigarh Administration for this purpose having jurisdiction of UT, Chandigarh may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations.

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the Chandigarh Administration may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation- In this sub-rule 'next preceding day' means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favorable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favorable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

- 8. Night shifts.—Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then
 - a. a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case means a period of twenty- four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and

- 48. Powers of Inspector-cum-Facilitator. The Chandigarh Administration may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be Inspector-cum-Facilitator for the purposes of this case, and define the local limits within which they shall exercise their functions:
- (a) enter, at all reasonable hours, with such assistants (if any), being persons in the service of the Government or any local or other public authority, as he thinks fit, any premises or place where employees are employed or work is given out to out-workers whether unskilled occupation, skilled occupation, semi-skilled occupation and highly skilled occupation in respect of which minimum rates of wages have been fixed under this Act, for the purpose of examining any register, record of wages or notices required to be kept or exhibited by or under this Act or rules made there under, and require the production thereof for inspection;
- (b) examine any person whom he finds in any such premises or place and who, he has reasonable cause to believe, is an employee employed therein or an employee to whom work is given out therein and require any person giving out-work and any out-workers, to give any information, which is in his power to give, with respect to the names and addresses of the persons to, for and from whom the work is given out or received, and with respect to the payments to be made for the work;

- (c) seize or take copies of such register, record of wages or notices or portions thereof as he may consider relevant in respect of an offence under this Act which he has reason to believe has been committed by an employer; and
- (d) supervise the payment of wages to persons employed in any factory or industrial or any other establishment;
- (e) exercise such other powers as may be prescribed;
- (f) Every Inspector-cum-Facilitator shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860);
- (g) Any person required to produce any document or thing or to give any information by an inspector-cum-facilitator under sub-rule (a) to (e) shall be deemed to be legally bound to do so within the meaning of section 175 and section 176 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860)].

CHAPTER IX

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

- 49.Officer for holding enquiry— For the purpose of Section 53 (1), the Chandigarh Administration may appoint any officer not below the rank of Joint Secretary Labour, Govt. of India or an officer of equivalent rank in the Chandigarh Administration, as the case may be, for holding enquiry in such manner, as may be prescribed by the Central Government.
- 50. Officer and Manner of imposing fine under sub-section (1) of section 56.(1) The Chandigarh Administration may, by notification, appoint any Gazette Officer for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 56 (hereinafter referred to as the compounding officer) for composition of offences.
- (2) An accused person desirous of making composition of offence under subsection (1) of section 56 may make an application in Form VI electronically or otherwise to the Gazette Officer notified under said sub-section (1).
- (2) The Officer referred to in sub-rule(1), shall, on receipt of such application, satisfy himself as to whether the offence is compoundable or not under the Code and if the offence is compoundable and the accused person agrees for the composition, compromise the offence for a sum of fifty per cent of the maximum fine provided for such offence under the Code, to be paid by the accused within the time specified in the order of composition issued by such officer.
- (3) Where the offence has been compromised under sub-rule (2) after the institution of the prosecution, then, the officer shall send a copy of such order made by him for intimation to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 for needful action under sub-section (6) of section 56.
- 51. Form of application for the compounding of an offence specified under subsection (4) of section 56- An accused person desirous of making composition of offence under sub-section (1) of section 56 may make an application in Form VII electronically or manually to the Officer and in such manner as may be prescribed in Rule 50 of the Chandigarh Code on Wages, Rules, 2021.

CHAPTER X MISCELLANEOUS

52. Timely Payment of Wages.- Where the employees are employed in an establishment through contractor, then, it is the duty of the contractor to disburse the wages to his workers before the date of Payment of wages in accordance with the provisions of section 17 and also comply with the other provisions such as EPF, ESI, Labour Welfare Fund and there-after raises a bill, which is often supported by proof of compliances under various labour legislations. After verification of the same, payment is released to the contractor by Principal Employer.

Provided that, in case the contractor fails to make payment of wages within the prescribed period or makes short payment, then the principal employer shall be liable to make payment of wages in full as per the provision of section 55 of the Occupational Safety, Health And Working Conditions Code, 2020 and rules made there under by the Chandigarh Administration.

Explanation.-For the purpose of this rule, the expression "principal employer" shall have the meaning as assigned to it in the Occupational Safety, Health And Working Conditions Code, 2020 (NO. 37 of 2020).

53. Repeal and saving. - The Payment of Wages Rules, 1937 and the Minimum Wages Rules, 1950 are hereby repealed:

Provided that any order issued or any action taken under the aforesaid rules so repealed, shall be deemed to have been issued or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.
